Lake Villa Board Grants Local Property Rezoning

By Mrs. Fred Bartlett

LAKE VILLA—The Lake Villa Zoning Board voted 4 to 3 against the rezoning of the 12 acres of land on Deep Lake Road and Grand Avenue, Lake Villa, to change it from residential to business. The land was purchased by John Valvanis of Waukegan.

John Valvanis wanted to open up motels and a recreation center. The project is backed up by a group called the Calendar Corporation, with most of the backers residing in Chicago.

Valvanis said that if approval was forthcoming he would like to start work on his proposed business in January, hoping to complete it by spring.

Mayor Walter Schneider, Sr., called a special meeting Saturday, Dec. 23, at 8 p.m. to try to get the matter cleared up.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hearther were present and objected to the rezoning. Mrs. Hearther stated that she thought a home for the aged was to be erected.

After much discussion a vote was taken which resulted in a tie of 3 to 3. Mayor Walter Schneider, Sr. broke the tie and voted for the project.

The Lake Villa board will grant Valvanis a liquor license upon the opening of his business.

Boy is Buried Beneath Corn

An accident involving 7-year-old Edward Lasco of Channel Lake almost took the boy's life Tuesday, Dec. 26.

Edward is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lasco.

The boy fell off a nearby wagon into a corn-loading machine and was imbedded under one and a half tons of corn.

Workers noticed one boot jutting from beneath the heavy corn coming through a conveyor belt. The machine was turned off and the Antioch Rescue Squad was called immediately.

The boy was removed from the corn and his condition was described as being shaken up with scratches.

Water District Expands Deposits To Reach Financial Institutions

During the past year, the Lake County Public Water District has expanded the deposit of its funds to five financial institutions in the County. In addition to the Antioch Savings & Loan Association, the District also maintains accounts in the Zion State Bank, the Mundelein Savings & Loan Association, the Citizens State Bank and the Home Savings & Loan Association, both of Waukegan.

The funds represent reserves for bond and interest payments, operation, maintenance and renewal reserves and surplus. Each of these reserves must be maintained over a long period of time, and as such, they are an aid to the continued growth of Lake County financial institutions. Additional banks and

Youth Confesses To Trevor Theft

Trevor's noted Shanty Town Tavern suffered a four-month loss of $3,100 at the hands of a fifteen-year-old Wisconsin youth, it was recently disclosed.

The theft, which was admitted by the youth under a four month period in which a polygraph test was used, included a check drawn upon one of the banks in Antioch.

George H. Francis Will Run for Rep.

George H. Francis, Secretary and Loan Manager of Libertyville Federal Savings and Loan Association, today made formal announcement of his candidacy for Republican Representative in Congress for the 12th District of Illinois.

George H. Francis

Mr. Francis said that his platform, like Senators Tower and Goldwater, was simply one of pro-Americanism and directly opposed to the ever-growing threat of Marxism-Socialism. It is his feeling that the American people have become fed up with the professional politicians who have promised everything to their constituents and have delivered only higher taxes, a staggering national debt, federal infringement of individual rights and complacency and appeasement in the face of the criminal communist conspiracy.

Mr. Francis is a graduate political scientist from the Illinois Institute of Technology, who started fighting communism in the Korean War where he witnessed, firsthand, those atrocities committed against helpless men, women and children by the contemptuous Red criminals.

He is an anti-subversive committeeman for the 10th District of the American Legion and a speaker for the Patrick Henry Freedom Brigade under the sponsorship of American Legion Post 703. He is also Secretary of Libertyville Lions Club and publicity chairman of the Libertyville Chamber of Commerce.

Natives Charged With Violations

Secretary of State, Charles F. Carpenter announced that two Antioch residents have had their driver's licenses suspended by the Drivers License Division of his office.

The two drivers are Terrance K. Horton and Dennis R. Volting.

The drivers lost their licenses after having three previous violations charged to them.

is located at Loon Lake and Deep Lake Roads.

According to Supt. Richard Whitacre, 325 pupils are now enrolled in the school which has been operating for several years. Gilbert and Johnson are the original designers of the building.

Future growth of the school was anticipated at its inception when the exteriors of the seven extra rooms, showers and toilets were provided. The job remaining to be done is the partitioning, finishing and outfitting of the added space.

The original enrollment has increased almost 20 per cent in a steady growth, stated Supt. Whitacre. Deep Lake, Crooked Lake, and Oakwood Knolls are the areas of rural expansion sending the new students into the school.

It was reported that five of the seven available rooms would be occupied next year.

This action is forthcoming from a formal resolution passed at the School Board Meeting.

Bids to Be Open

Sealed bids for the completion of the school will be received by the Board up until Jan. 23.

Bids will be received for separate contracts on the General Construction, Electrical, Plumbing and Heating and Ventilation.

All bidders will be required to furnish satisfactory performance and payment bonds.

Plans detailing the specifications of the required labor are opened for inspection at the office of Gilbert and Johnson.

Santa's Mailbag Brims Into Print

Just before Santa left Antioch last week to continue his trip around the world, he dropped into the office of the Antioch News and asked that a few of the many letters to him be printed.

He said he very much appreciated all the little boys and girls sending along their thoughts of him.

Here are a few samples:

Dear Santa: I want a new born baby doll and knee socks too. I will put a picture on the back. I like you. My baby sister would like a chicken to pull. She is too small to ask you. So I will ask for her. And pajamas. I want to give you some cookies and milk. From Donna Haase.

Dear Santa, Matthew what's the goggy family and a top yakky job color's. The putt putt car. Thank you, Matthew.

Dear Santa: Please bring me a race car and a play-mobile and tree keys to treasure game. Thank you ver much Remi Carton. PS: I will leave a cookie in my stocking for you and a bottle of pepsi. Merry Christmas to you and Mrs. Clause.

There were many more letters but unfortunately we could not print them all. We hope every boy and girl received what they wanted. Santa, we are sure, did his best.

Train Wrecks Stalled Auto

Antioch Police Chief Walter Scott reported that a large freight train completely demolished a stalled car parked on the tracks at Rte. 173, Dec. 23 at 1:30 p.m.

The driver of the car, Robert McNamara of Chicago got out of the car after it had stalled and noticed the headlight of the oncoming train down the tracks. He vainly attempted to signal the engineer to stop but was not seen.

The car was facing west on the tracks when it was hit head on by the freight. The engineer stated that he saw it was empty but nevertheless reversed his engines in order to stop.

The train was 12 cars past the intersection before it could be halted. McNamara's car was thrown into the southern ditch near Rte. 173.

Completely demolished, the car was caved in from the right side. Along with other valuables, McNamara lost his driver's license in the auto. His father, Joseph McNamara owns a summer home at Cox's Corner.

FOOD FOR THE NEEDY was packed into gift baskets last week and distributed in the Antioch area. Preparing to move out with the first shipment are John R. Bajek and Stanley W. Teton.

EDITORIAL

At The Risk of Celebrations

If you have noted the headlines in the newspapers appearing in the last few days, you will remember that close to 500 persons were killed outright in the brief hours of the Christmas holidays.

Of course, many of these tragic victims died because of the hazardous conditions of the ice-laden roads. Nevertheless, it is probably safe to say that thirty-five per cent were killed due to celebrating the holidays by over-indulging in alcohol.

To condemn drinking on the whole is simply foolish. We do not wish to imply this in any way. The 18 crime-packed years of the world's worst law, Prohibition, proved that no one can force people to stop drinking. Force would, as in the past, only heighten a natural inclination to rebel against a dictatorial situation. It is our opinion, however, that drinking, and especially on New Year's, should be tempered by each person.

There is no greater moment in the year for light-hearted celebration than greeting the perennial occasion of New Year's and there is no greater time which is deadlier to human lives.

It really doesn't require a great deal of thought or fortitude to answer "no, thank you" to the "have another," question. Nothing more than common sense is necessary.

This problem should weigh most heavily with the drivers of cars. A driver not only takes his own life into his hands when driving after more than enough of his share of drinking, but becomes a threat, a danger and a menace to other persons. Sometimes, unfortunately, he becomes a killer.

We feel, that perhaps you might keep this in mind at the advent of your sojourn into the night's revelry. It is entirely possible that before the evening is through you could be a murderer of innocent people.

We would like to suggest that if you are planning on going to a party or gathering where alcohol will be served that you temper your drinking when driving. If you know you have had too much to drink, then leave your car wherever it is parked and go home with a friend or take a cab.

This may be a way that will save your life.

Remember, there will be another on the roads this coming New Year's. The only difference between him and others is that his celebration is exceedingly grim. His name is Death.

Courthouse Notebook -

BY LOU DURKIN

This is the time for predictions and resolutions and in the normal course of events columnists will make some far out guesses which they dignify with the label of predictions arrived at after careful consideration of all facts.

With this studios background we forthrightly predict that come this time a year hence Lake County will have a new man holding down the office of Sheriff and County Treasurer Hugo L. Schneider, Jr., will have been replaced in the treasurer's chair.

A new Probate Judge will have been installed on the Probate bench and Allen J. Nelson, veteran Probate Clerk, will be looking forward to his first retirement check after breaking in his successor.

A new state representative will be getting briefed by State Representative Robert E. Coulson for the opening session of the Illinois General Assembly and a new 12th Congressional District Representative will be preparing to close his Lake County home and move to Washington as a freshman Congressman.

Unchanged will be the face behind the County Judge Bench and in the offices of County Clerk and Superintendent of Schools.

Sometime during the coming year plans for a new county building will be presented to the Board of Supervisors and some Supervisor will ask what building they are talking about and shouldn't this question properly go to the voters for their approval. A check of the voting record will show that this same supervisor has voted "aye" on every question concerning the new building starting with the establishment of the Public Building Commission.

Also during the year the board will vote to overrule the recommendation of the zoning board on a rezoning petition and will argue for 15 minutes on the voting procedure to be followed in overriding the committee report.

The year 1962 will see the start of the widening of Grand Ave. and a committee will be appointed to study the possibility of constructing a grade separation at 22nd St. in North Chicago and the North Western Railway tracks.

Another committee will recommend that the grade separation be moved to the central part of Lake County, preferably on the County Home property.

Waukegan's Mayor Robert Sabonjian will declare himself a Republican and then announce that he is the new head of the Republican party in Lake County and dare anyone to dispute his claim. . . . Harry Kilbane will question it.

The proudest fellow in the courthouse last week was County Juvenile Officer Pat Clavey.

Clavey, who takes his work with the youngsters in trouble to heart, was showing off a group of Christmas cards he had received from some of the juvenile offenders he had worked with and got turned around in the right direction.

Something new has been added to political campaigning . . . formal announcement of withdrawal before formal announcement of candidacy. The innovator of this switch is Frank Worack, Waukegan accountant, who had been mentioned as a possible candidate for State Representative.

State Representative W. J. Murphy sent an inspiring note to the Letter to the Editor department of most of the county papers last week specifying the type of candidate Lake County should elect as our new Representative in Congress.

After careful study of the actual and possible field it became apparent that Rep. Murphy was the only person who fit the bill of particulars. Coincidence?

Our apologies to Charlie Larson for stating last week that his formal announcement party would be held on Jan. 17.

The correct date is Jan. 20 at Lorenz's Smart Country House in Antioch.

Your Governor Reports
by OTTO KERNER

The year 1961 was a year of many decisions vital to the welfare of Illinois. The new year of 1962 may well be one of even greater decisions as we strive to find solutions to many of the complex problems facing our state. It is my fervent and sincere hope that, for the residents of Illinois, 1962 will be a happy and prosperous year.

We are privileged to live in one of the most wealthy and vigorous states of a great nation. Our state is a part of a precious national heritage—a heritage not easily gained, nor easily sustained. As long as totalitarianism and tyranny exist in the world, this heritage is in constant danger.

As another New Year approaches, let us resolve to re-affirm our belief in the ideals of freedom, unite in our sense of citizen responsibility and endeavor always to secure for ourselves and those less fortunate than we, the essentials that embody the good life we enjoy.

In doing this each of us will play an important role in securing the total peace we all seek for this new year.

GIRL SCOUTS
By Mrs. Raymond Claffy
El. 6-5086

On Dec. 19, at 3 p.m. Brownie Troop 128 of Lindenhurst held a Christmas party at the B. J. Hooper School with 26 girls and 5 leaders present. Mrs. Peggy Panzer, who is a newcomer to the adult workers in the troop led the girls in singing carols and playing games. They enjoyed refreshments of Christmas cookies, ice cream and pop, after which they exchanged gifts and Co-leader Mrs. Pearce presented Mrs. Claffy, leader, with a lovely gift from all of the Brownies. The afternoon came to a close with the girls gathering all the Christmas presents they had made, to take home.

Sequoyah (Antioch-Lake Villa) Neighborhood Girl Scout Leaders Association held a Christmas party on Tuesday evening, Dec. 19, at Lake Villa Village Hall. Mrs. Pat Helwig and Mrs. Jane Tiesling were chairmen for this event. Guests of the evening were a 19-piece dance band of Antioch High School, which rendered several numbers, and a woodwind quintet also of the High School which played a number. Dr. Peg, a magician of Venetian Village entertained with some very delightful tricks.

Everyone sang Christmas carols and the members played games with prizes for the winners. Our neighborhood chairman, Mrs. George Sedevic headed the distribution of grab bag gifts.

Refreshments were enjoyed by approximately 55 persons. The members closed their evening with a Christmas cookie exchange march.

A Christmas party was planned and held by Intermediate Troop 213 of Antioch at the Antioch Grade School on the evening of Dec. 16. This was part of their First Class requirements as a Community Friendship project. Invited and attending were Girl Scout troops 124 Oakland School, 110 and 85, St. Peter's School, 201 Grass Lake, 213 Antioch; Boy Scout Troops 80 from Grass Lake, 91 and 92 of Antioch.

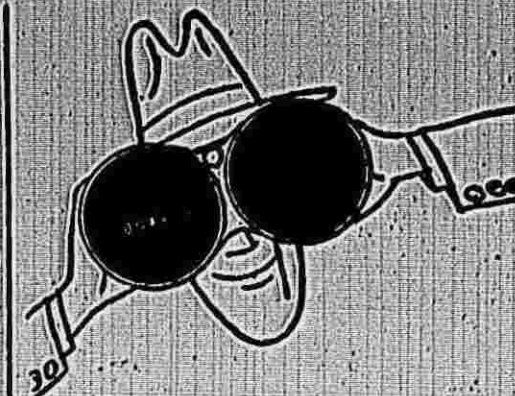

The evening started with several games. A grand march and snake dance followed with a couple of mixers. After these dance numbers the boys and girls went to the cafeteria for refreshments. As the Scouts returned from lunch they formed sets and square danced until 10:30. There were about 95 boys and girls present and a good time was had by all.

Brownie Troop 210 of Grass Lake had a Christmas party and invited their parents. The Brownies sang Christmas carols and Patty LaParr played some carols on her accordion. Refreshments were donated by the parents and served by the Brownies. Also on Dec. 21, the girls sang carols at the Lake Villa Nursing home and gave each patient a gift of cookies and cup cakes. Their leader is Mrs. Marge LaParr and her co-leader is Mrs. Alma Bailey.

Fox Lake Area Grandmothers Club was entertained by several Fox Lake troops—Intermediates 78, their leader is Mrs. Janet Magoon; 219, leader, Mrs. Dorothy Osborn, and Senior Troop 205, leader, Mrs. Dorothy Siebert.

The senior troop did a skit and all troops sang carols with community singing. The Grandmothers gave each girl a gift and invited them to join them in a pot luck supper. There were approximately 60 persons present.

SELBY, S. D. RECORD: "Nowadays, you often read about the federal spending program and the billions of dollars being spent annually. This year's program cost 88 billion dollars. Most of us think we have a faint idea of how much a billion dollars is. I thought I did until I read an article the other day explaining in language I could understand, just how gigantic a sum a billion dollars is. This is how it was described: 'Suppose a business were begun at the time Christ was born. Each and every day thereafter, it lost $1,000. To date, the loss would be only $715 million. Not for another 778 years would it reach a billion.' Think of that for a while."

by
Jay Nash

The candles flickered in the almost hushed quiet of the room and their mellow shadows played gayly upon the wall. We sat complacently at the table. I looked at her. She looked at me. I noted the fine characteristics of her face, the fluff of her hair. There was an air of Christmas about her.

Softly, my breath hovering above the flaming candles, I spoke. "Your hand is in the cheesecake, Joyce." As usual, I had come to Joyce Kiefer's Christmas dinner, which she gives annually for her betrothed, Ray Puechner, (a now-and-then columnist of the Antioch News) uninvited. Therefore I was given nothing to eat.

But just to show me that there was no hard feelings, I was allowed to sit among the soiled dishes and gather in the aroma of some mighty fine Christmas leavings.

Being that both of my friends are widely-published authors, (Ray appears in national magazines such as The Saturday Review and Joyce in various literary periodicals) I was forced into the spiritual mortification (Thanks, Louis) of having to read Joyce's play "Zombi in Blue" while my two erstwhile companions savagely attacked me with troubador Christmas carols.

"Zombi in Blue" is concerned with three brothers, all dwarfs and somewhat on the daffy side who build a zombi-like creature to give to their step-child, one Prince Myskin. This well-intentioned monster viciously attacks his master when he is unwrapped. . . .

I discontinued reading, begging off with the fact that the candles did not afford sufficient lighting. Joyce and Ray turned on every light in the house.

Just as I was beginning to force myself to read on, Charlie Victor, Joyce's pet guinea pig started to whistle loudly from his cardboard box in the corner. (Ray won Charlie as a prize at the premier showing of "Rio Bravo"). I was spared from reading further.

Joyce commenced to pacify Charlie by fondling him. I called him an obese rat and drew heated comments from my friends, not to mention Charlie's menacing whistle. (They actually do whistle, you know, the sound being similar to that of a quagga in a wind tunnel.) Anyway the only reward Joyce received from Charlie was a nervous twitching of the glandular muscles and a soiled dress. I was then informed that that was all you could expect a guinea pig to do.

Next we fixed ourselves a few cups of good cheer, and just before Ray and I departed, Joyce brought forth a box of hoarded sparklers left over from V-J day.

We set them off, the sparks flying in every direction, placed the unit ends between our teeth, smiled and played F.D.R. for at least 20 minutes.

Then Ray and I left Joyce to clean up the mess. That is the way I spent a large chunk of '61's Christmas. Hope yours was the same.

WHAT IS AN ESCROW?

You may wonder what lawyers or real estate men mean when they use the term "escrow." The word may sound strange, but the basic idea is quite simple. An escrow is a method of carrying out contracts through a disinterested third party (a "middle-man") who is called the "escrowee."

In a simple case, the escrowee's job may be to hold the money of one party to a contract until the other party delivers certain documents. Then the escrowee makes the exchange, and the transaction is complete.

The escrow is the set of instructions given to the "escrowee" by the parties to the contract, telling him what conditions must be fulfilled by the parties to the contract before he may release the documents or funds he is holding.

Who May Be the Escrowee?

The parties may name anyone they choose as their escrow agent, for example, some person in whom both parties have confidence. Nowadays financial institutions such as title companies or trust companies act as escrowee in most business transactions. Some of these institutions have employees who do nothing but escrow work.

Buying Your Home

Escrows are frequently used by people buying and selling homes. For example, when John and Ellen Carey decided to buy a home from Bill Stone, their lawyer told them that for certain technical reasons, it would be impossible to determine whether they would obtain a free and clear title until some time after Bill's deed was recorded in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds.

John and Ellen naturally wanted assurance of good title before they paid Bill, so their lawyer suggested the use of an escrow. The escrow provided that Bill was to give the escrowee a deed conveying the property to John and Ellen, and that the escrowee was to record the deed as soon as John and Ellen give the purchase money to the escrowee. This money will be paid to Bill only when it has been determined that good and merchantable title is conveyed by the deed.

The escrow also provided what was to be done in case the deal fell through. If Bill's deed does not convey good title to John and Ellen, the purchase price was to be returned to John and Ellen, and title restored to Bill.

By the use of this device, John and Ellen can be certain that their money will not be paid until they know Bill's title is good. And Bill knows that the money is ready for him if his title is good.

Another major use of escrows is to guarantee performance of contracts requiring delayed performance. For example, Jim and Joe each own 50% of the stock in a corporation, and each agrees that on the death of the other, his stock will be sold to the other at a certain price.

Each can deposit the stock and the amount of the purchase price with an escrowee under instructions to transfer Jim's stock to Joe on Jim's death and pay Jim's estate the purchase price deposited by Joe, or vice versa if Joe dies first. Both know that the purchase money and the stock will be available to complete the contract.

When real estate is sold under an installment contract, the deed is often similarly put into an escrow to be delivered when the purchase price has been fully paid. This avoids difficulties arising if the seller dies in the interim.

Caution

Escrow agreements must be carefully drawn by experienced counsel, because many contingencies must be provided for. Also, the escrowee should be carefully selected, because he must follow the escrow instructions to the letter. If the escrowee is a bank or other corporation, it must be empowered by special law to act.

From an editorial in the Lewiston, Idaho, News: "A government big enough to give us what we want is also big enough to take what it wants. Government pays no taxes, it taxes; and the government businesses that are in competition with private enterprise pay no taxes. The government corporation owns 40 per cent of the land area and 20 per cent of the industrial capacity of our nation. . . . Only when the government gets out of tax-free, rent-free business can you expect taxes to come down. . . . Government must come down to its Constitutional size before you can expect the national debt to be reduced and taxes lowered."

How to Save a Life

FIRST AID CARE OF THERMAL BURNS

by Curtis P. Arts, M. D.

(When someone is struck down and badly injured in an accident, first aid, given before a doctor can get to the injured one, may save his life. Everyone should know what to do in these emergencies.)

The following article, prepared as a public service by the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, tells what to do in one serious instance. It is one of a series appearing in this newspaper.

In rescuing a flaming victim, first the flames must be put out. The person should not run as it only fans the flames. He should lie down to prevent the fire from spreading to the upper aspects of the body, including the face and hair. Smother the fire by covering the victim with such things as blankets, coats, or rugs; use water if it is available, but don't use dirt or sand unless there is nothing else to use. In escaping from a burning structure where there is smoke as well as fire, a wet handkerchief or towel folded over the mouth prevents inhalation of the smoke, and the victim should crawl on the floor where the smoke is not so thick.

In severe burns, which cover more than 10 per cent of the body surface, jewelry, such as rings and bracelets, and tight clothing should be removed without delay before swelling makes this impossible. No home remedy, medication, food or drink or stimulants should be given.

Get the patient to the doctor as rapidly as possible. However, it should be emphasized that reckless haste should be avoided. Burns are not helped enough by speed to risk accident in transportation.

In burns of more than 4 square inches in area, the surface should be covered immediately with a clean cloth to prevent air from stimulating the pain and to prevent infection. The patient should then be taken to a physician as rapidly and as safely as possible.

The first concern in the first aid treatment of all burns is to relieve pain and to prevent infection. In smaller burns, of less than 4 square inches in area, the best immediate treatment is to put the injured part in cool, clean water. This neutralizes the heat and prevents damage to deeper tissues. The area should be cleaned with soap and warm water and covered with a water soluble anesthetic ointment if available. A clean dressing should then be applied. After the above treatment there is usually little pain. The part should be kept elevated to prevent swelling.

Sunburns should be treated by gentle washing with soap and warm water, the application of a water soluble anesthetic ointment, aspirin and the intake of large quantities of fluid.

Along The Way

With Annie Mae

Wearily but happy after a really beautiful Christmas, I take my pen in hand to start this New Year with a recipe whose ingredients are as old as life itself, but also as new to some as the coming year.

A Recipe for a New Year 1962

Take a large cup of strength and mix well with a cup of compassion.

Add two tablespoonfuls of courage.

And a dash of dander.

Now mix into the rest a full cup of humor.

And a teaspoonful of tears.

Stir well with the rod and staff of Godliness.

And mold into the spirit of true Americanism.

May your happiness stay All Along the Way.

Illegal passing is among the most dangerous of traffic violations, says the Chicago Motor Club. Never pass on hills, curves, at intersections, and whenever a solid yellow line is painted on your side of the highway center line. It is important to remember, however, that the absence of a yellow line does not automatically give you the right to pass. If there's any doubt about your ability to pass safely, stay in your own lane.

ALTOONA, PA. MIRROR: "The whole traffic solution in the country today lies in the use of the railroads. Still, however, those in authority are blind to this actual fact, and have been for years."

You keep up your resistance by eating enough of a well-balanced diet, by getting enough sleep and avoiding physical and emotional stress as much as possible. Some people tend to neglect these important matters, especially as they get older.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council.

BETTER BABY PICTURES—
By John V. Adams
Carl Zeiss Baby Consultant

Ever since babies first were placed on bear skin rugs for photographing, no family picture album has been complete without delightful pictures recording their first years.

But do pictures of your baby invite adoring oohs and ahs, or merely polite reactions?

In order to take the best pictures of your baby, you'll need a little bit of know-how, a smattering of patience, and lots of applied psychology.

As far as equipment is concerned, if your camera can take close-up pictures, so much the better. A tripod also comes in handy to eliminate camera movement and free your hands for other things. If you "shoot" without a tripod, be sure to brace your elbows when you "snap" to keep blurs from your finished photos.

Your picture-taking area should be about three feet from a plain background. A solid colored blanket, spread on a low table or bassinet, if baby's very small, will suffice. Since you won't want to unnecessarily involve your child in preliminaries, use a doll as a "stand-in" for all arrangements.

It's best to place your camera about four feet from your youngster. With blanket and camera set, replace the "stand-in" with your loved one and let him begin to play.

Of course, with uncontrolled activity, your youngster is apt to crawl toward you and the camera, so you'll have to arrange something to keep his interest. For example, you might want to try hand puppets, or his favorite toy placed "on location." Baby also might react well to playing with some colorful small objects, such as a ribbon or a balloon.

College Students Honored at Grant

On December 31, from 2 to 4 p.m., the Guidance Services Department of Grant High School will hold a reception for Grant seniors and Grant graduates now attending college.

Students and faculty are invited to meet in the library for an informal exchange of ideas. It is hoped that Senior students can get a realistic view of what is expected of them as future college students and college students may profit by receiving suggestions from former teachers.

There are a few "discovery" games which bring delightful expressions to baby's eyes. When your child is old enough to handle a book, you might try placing a few brightly colored pieces of ribbon between different pages. As baby comes to a page where a piece of ribbon was hidden, voila! You'll have just the right expression.

A top, a rattle or a block also can be hidden in the blanket fold or in a rolled sock, for the same effect. In any case, such discovery will reward your patience and result in a fine new contribution for the pages of your family album. And those resultant oohs and ahs you'll hear from admiring friends and neighbors will be genuine appreciation for adorable baby pictures.

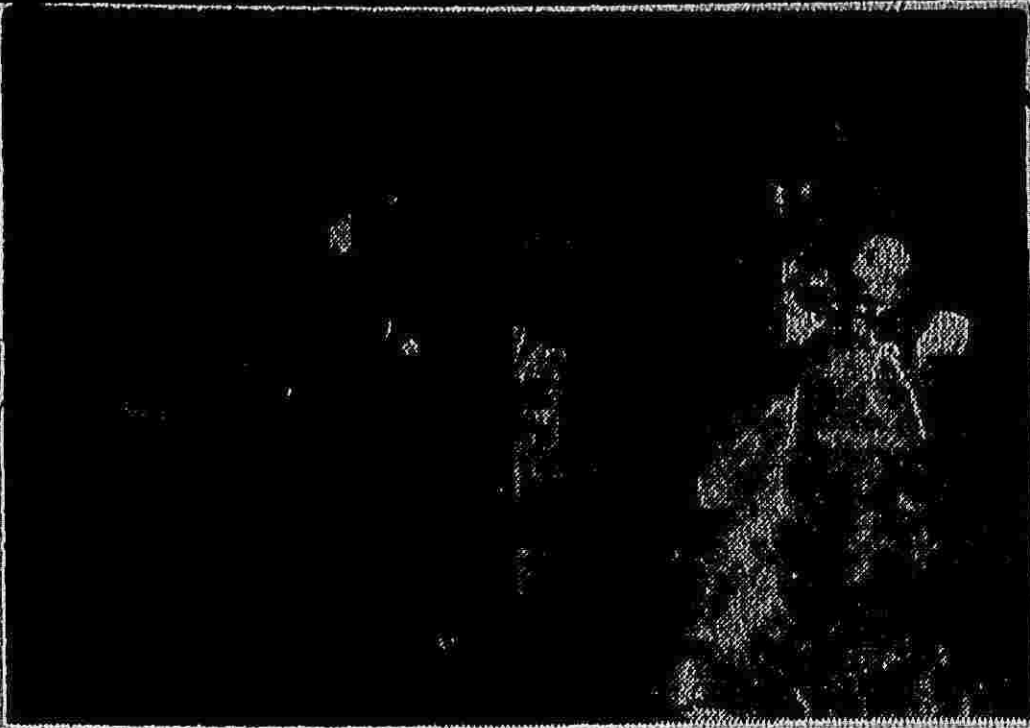

Tuberculosis ranks 15th as a cause of deaths in the United States.

Happy NEW YEAR

May all of you enjoy increased prosperity and good health!

Thank you for your patronage, and we will look forward to seeing each one of you again!

DRIVING IN PROPER LANE

A person can become fairly frustrated trying to outguess the driver ahead of him who is changing lanes and cutting back and forth in front of traffic for no apparent reason.

"Well, he didn't turn left and he didn't pass—Now I wonder what he's going to do!"

Driving in the right lane is one of the basic safety rules. Improper lane usage is a traffic law violation which has caused or contributed to many collisions. To avoid committing this type of violation, a driver must . . .

Remain in the right-hand lane except when overtaking and passing, or when approaching a left-hand turn on a highway marked with three or more lanes.

Make right turns from within right-hand lane and left turns from the left lane, on streets or highways marked with more than one lane in each direction.

Use turn signal before changing lanes and first make sure that such movement can be made safely.

In order for a driver to find himself in the proper lane at the proper time, he must prepare in advance for turns which require lane changes. This is true on expressways and on multiple-lane streets carrying heavy traffic. Drivers who fail to think ahead are likely to find themselves in an embarrassing position when they reach the exit or corner where they had planned to turn off. Serious accidents are sometimes caused by drivers who take a chance and cut across under these circumstances.

Choosing the proper lane is especially important when driving on multiple-lane expressways. Slower vehicles are required to keep to the right. The left lane is used by those who are making an approach to a left exit or passing other vehicles. The remaining central lanes are best used by those who are driving at the average speed and who are not yet close to their turn-off point. Frequent changing of lanes in an attempt to get additional yardage is dangerous and inadvisable. In fact, experimental trials have shown that little or nothing can actually be gained by this maneuver. The most important thing, after choosing the proper lane, is to stay in it until time to change.

MELROSE, MASS., FREE PRESS:

"In the old days we used to walk to school, thereby getting fresh air and exercise. Now we have to have school buses pick up and return the youngsters. Because of the lack of exercise, we must erect gymnasiums and provide physical education instructors. The last, and best, is the case of the Westmere, N. Y., father, who won a contract to tote his own two daughters to a private school (optional if within ten miles of their homes) in the family Cadillac. Dad collects $1300 for this service."

HARTLAND, WIS., LAKE COUNTY REPORTER:

"Communism is an ideology. All communists think alike. Those of us in the free nations often not only don't think alike, but have no common ideology or world aim. We need a common ideology. One united goal that will overturn the advances of communism. We must not only think freedom, but must act it and believe in our actions."

Carbon monoxide is a deadly enemy of the motorist, reminds the Chicago Motor Club. That is why it is important that a driver never run his car engine in a garage unless all the garage doors are open. Carbon monoxide is odorless and tasteless.

Women's Club

Mrs. Paul Ireland was elected president of the Lindenhurst Women's Club in a very close race with Mrs. Raymond Verdick Thursday night, Dec. 14. Mrs. Harold Sokup won the vice-presidency over Mrs. Warren Frontisak; Mrs. William Guzik, secretary; Mrs. Harold Buerster, treasurer over Mrs. Floyd Stanley; to the executive board, Mrs. Clarence Kieffner and Mrs. Jack Thompson. Installation will be at the January 11 meeting.

Approximately 150 men and women attended the pot-luck supper the Women's Club had for the members and their husbands. Beautiful table decorations were made by Erlene Pearce and Ailyce Buerster.

Western Party

Mrs. Dee Flint is chairman of the Western Party that the Women's Club is sponsoring Feb. 24. On the committee with her Mesdames Dorothy Thompson, Babe Hartwig, Erlene Pearce, Grace Slove, Lu Stanley, Bert Harcey and Phyllis Kleban.

Birthdays

Happy birthday to Denise Plouvis, 108 North Whiteoak Drive, who was six years old December 20.

Florida Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baier, formerly of 1811 Burr Oak Lane and now of Grand Ave. in Sherwood Park, returned home Wednesday after a three week vacation in Florida. They spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Clare Sherwood at their summer home at Key Biscayne. They went fishing for a shark, but the big boys got away. Vera did catch some ocean fish, though. While at Daytona Beach, they did some Christmas shopping.

Meet Your Neighbors

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Levas of 1812 East Hazelwood Drive moved into their new bi-level home around the end of September. They formerly lived on Franklin Blvd. and Central Park in Chicago. They have six children, Ernest 12, Christine 10, Peter, Jr., 8, Anna Marie 5, Rosie 3 and Georgianne 15 months.

Pete works for Siccone Brothers. Ernest, like all boys his age, enjoys making model cars.

Catherine is the sister of Carmie Megillo on Sprucewood Lane.

From Cicero, come Mr. and Mrs.

Edward Morgan. They moved into their Colonial style home at 1808 Sprucewood Lane October 12. They have two youngsters, Edward Leonard 2, and Rose Marie 6 1/2 months. Ed is a fireman on the Chicago & North Western railroad. Jackie passes her time sewing, when she isn't busy with the children and her new home.

Ed is the nephew of Mrs. Evelyn Hertel on Thornwood Drive.

Another Navy family is making Lindenhurst their home. William and Helen Bergh moved into the home formerly owned by Walter Baier at 1811 Burr Oak Lane. Bill's rate is O-1. He has been with the navy 18 years and has two more years to go to retire. He was stationed at San Diego and was on the U.S.S. Shaght for 5 years. Now he is at Great Lakes Training Center.

The Berghs have been married 14 years and have two children, Jerry, 13, is in the eighth grade at Lake Villa School. Cinda, 5, is in the kindergarten at the Hooper school. Jerry and his dad enjoy making model airplanes and automobiles. At the present time they are building a large ship. Where to put it when finished, is what's concerning Mrs. Bergh. Most of the models they had built before moving here were broken during the moving, so had to be discarded.

Helen likes to sew and is making a coat for Cinda at the present time. Before moving here in September they took a 6,500 mile vacation, visiting Florida and Ohio. Helen is originally from Pensacola, Fla., and Bill from Cleveland, Ohio. She says she is going to hibernate for the winter, so if you don't see her all winter, you'll know she can't get used to our weather.

The Christmas party for the children of the Lindenhurst Men's and Women's Clubs was held Thursday evening at the Lindenhurst Civic Center. A film, Charlie McCarthy's Haunt, was shown. The singing of "Jingle Bells" brought in Santa Claus, who presented every boy and girl present with a gift, with the help of Mrs. Paul Ireland, Mrs. Harold Sokup and Mrs. George Zanic. Although they weren't all present, gifts were given to 134 children and two new babies. Little Donna Eileen Coles and to Connie Rae Hunt who arrived Monday morning.

Cookies and soda were enjoyed by everyone.

Sportsmen's Club

The Lindenhurst Sportsmen's Club and Auxiliary had their annual Christmas party for the children of the members Sunday, Dec. 17, at the B. J. Hooper School. Bud Barnes presented gifts to approximately 20 children from the club. Hot chocolate, cookies and candy were enjoyed by all.

Luther League

The first formal meeting of the Luther League of St. Mark's Lutheran Church on Grand Avenue in Lindenhurst, was held Sunday afternoon, December 17, at 5 p.m.

Phillip Fabry was elected president; Solveig Nelson, vice-president; Larry Hansen, secretary; Kenneth Shewan, treasurer, and Linnea Christensen, reporter.

A supper of salad, spaghetti, cup cakes and pop were served by Mrs. Earl Spiegler and Mrs. Ray Rathmann.

The Luther League will meet the second and fourth Sunday of every month at the church at 5 p.m. Anyone of High School or College age is welcome to attend.

Last Thursday, several volunteer Luther Leaguers packed boxes of candy for the small boys and girls who attend the church.

The teenagers are grateful to Pastor Nelson for organizing the Luther League.

Birthdays

Donald DiSilvestra celebrated his birthday on Christmas Day. And Anthony LaBarbera will be celebrating his fourteenth birthday December 29. Happy birthday to them and everyone else who is having a birthday this week.

New Baby

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hunt, 204 South Countryside Lane are receiving congratulations on the birth of their second daughter and fourth child. Little red haired Connie Rae was born Monday, Dec. 18 at Victory Memorial Hospital. The little miss weighed 7 pounds, 9 ounces at birth. The other Hunt children are Gary, Bobby and Linda. Linda is happy to have a sister.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hnt of Tucson, Ariz. Mrs. Hazel Bracke, Mae's mother, resides in Arlington Heights.

The Chicago Motor Club cautions drivers to allow for adverse weather conditions when planning winter travel. When there is snow or freezing rain, the sensible driver will reduce speed according to conditions and will allow himself more time to get to his destination. You can't regulate the weather, but you can regulate your driving.

Sequoits Scalp Elmwood Park Tigers 81-59

Antioch Hits 71% in Their Free Throws

By Mike Brooks

Coach Larry Leon utilized all his dressed players Tuesday night at the Fenton Holiday Tournament. The Sequoits whipped the Elmwood Park Tigers 81-59.

Antioch will move into the second round of play Thursday night against a powerful Glenbrook squad who defeated Ridgewood 100-35.

The Sequoits singled the nets with a blazing 54.9% completion of their field goal attempts. Elmwood Park made a low 33.6%.

Coach Leon switched his offense to a fast break which proved very effective. Pleviak, who has been consistent in the point scoring in the past few games, was on top with 17 points. Following him was Kubicki with 11 and Lang with 10. Krieger and Hallwas had 9 and Brownlee and Pogose each scored 8.

Another factor in the Sequoits' victory was free throws. They made 25 out of 35 for 71%.

Pacing the losers were Cangiolosi with 14 points and Jensen with 11. Eberhart and Green scored 9 apiece.

The Sequoits appeared much more organized and loosened up than in their previous game with Lake Forest on December 15. Lang and Hallwas had possession of the boards from the start of the game. Antioch out-rebounded the Tigers 32-25. Again, small but deceptive 5' 2" guard Jim Brownlee did an excellent job at the playmaker position.

Tuesday's game looked like a good team effort with a lot of spirit behind it. Any team that can make 55% of their shots will not be easy to beat.

Coach Leon stated that he held light workouts Wednesday evening and Thursday morning.

Antioch will play Glenbrook Thursday night at 8:00 p.m. The spectator bus will leave the high school at 6 p.m.

IN THIS WORLD

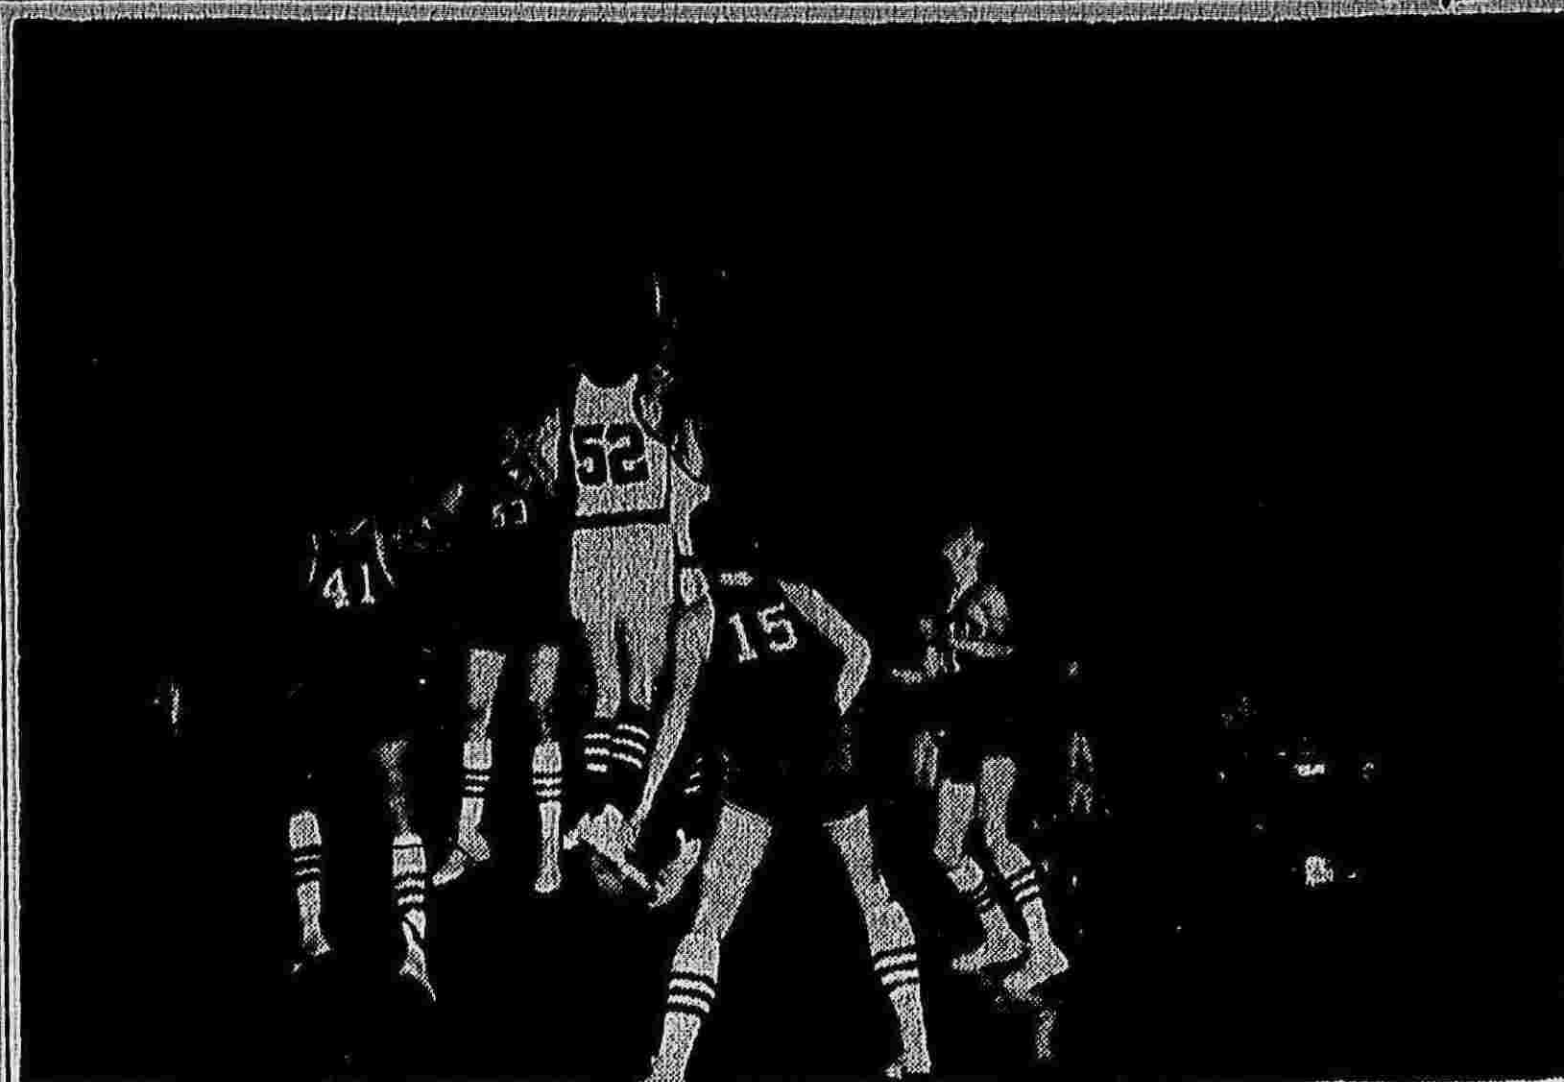

OUR CALENDARS ARE EVIDENCE THAT EVEN IN OUR AGE MAN FAILS TO KEEP ABREAST OF TIME...

DUE TO A PHENOMENON OF CELESTIAL MECHANICS, IDENTIFIED AS RETROGRADE MOTION, IT HAS BEEN ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE TO GAIN AN ACCURATE MEASURE OF TIME FOR OUR CIVIL CALENDAR YEARS...

[IN JULIUS CAESAR'S TIME (46 B.C.) THE CIVIL CALENDAR OFFERED FROM THE ASTRONOMICAL BY THREE MONTHS. CAESAR ABOLISHED THE USE OF THE LUNAR YEAR AND REGULATED THE CIVIL YEAR BY THE SUN AT 365 1/4 DAYS AND DECREED AN EXTRA DAY EVERY FOURTH YEAR... IN 400 YEARS, THE ERROR AMOUNTED TO THREE DAYS...]

POPE GREGORY XIII (1582) SUPPRESSED TEN DAYS FROM THE CALENDAR TO RETURN THE CALENDAR TO ITS FORMER PLACE. HE FIXED THE TIME AT 365 DAYS 5 HOURS 48 MINUTES AND 12 SECONDS... THIS CALENDAR, IN USE TODAY, STILL EXCEEDS THE TRUE SOLAR YEAR BY 26 SECONDS WHICH WILL AMOUNT TO A FULL DAY IN 3,323 YEARS.

LAST YEAR A NATIONAL SURVEY REVEALED THAT 3,763,000 SETS OF CALENDAR PAGES WERE REMOVED FROM A SINGLE ISSUE OF A NATIONAL MAGAZINE... A NINE-PAGE CALENDAR INSERT BY THE HARTFORD INSURANCE GROUP WILL BE REPEATED AGAIN THIS YEAR IN THE DECEMBER 16TH ISSUE OF THE MAGAZINE.

"UP FOR IT!" go Salem and Wilmet cagers in their Wednesday night battle, December 20. Coach Grams' fast-breaking Salem charged up an impressive win over Salem, 85 to 54.

MARY LOU GEIST, former Antioch student, wears her Mundelein College sweater and admires the old Sequoit garb laden with past laurels.

NOTCH IN THE BELT

From The Saturday Evening Post:

"It may turn out that the Teapot Dome scandal of the sizzling '60's will be Urban Renewal. In cities from coast to coast, areas of historic interest, pleasing architecture and gracious living are being condemned as 'substandard, blighted, deteriorating' or plain 'slum.' Then as John Crosby put it in a recent column, 'real-estate speculators come in loaded with federal money and vast powers and vast responsibilities. They can throw you out of your home, pay you a condemnation price for a house whose mortgage you've been paying off for 20 years and construct a perfectly hideous anathema in its place, which is called luxury housing.'

An interesting question that arises here is just why the federal taxpayers—a category which includes millions of people who don't live in urban areas, and have little or nothing to do with cities—should pay a large part of urban renewal bills. If a community wants to rid itself of a slum district, that is the community's business—and the community's responsibility. It is hard to see why, for instance, a farmer in Iowa should be forced

Rah-Rah Girl Pins Letters

Mary Lou Geist, a junior history major at Mundelein College, has become a prominent sports enthusiast and WAA president of the entire student body.

A former student of Antioch High School, Mary participated in the four-year athletic program the school customarily interlaces with academic studies.

Mary, with her athletic sweater bedecked with four GAA letters (one for each academic year), a pep club pin and letter, and the old Antioch label, has participated in many volleyball, kickball, baseball and basketball tournaments.

to contribute to a dubious project in New York City or Portland, Oregon.

Finally, the current arms buildup makes all possible belt-tightening in Washington essential. Urban renewal should be a notch in that belt.

The United States has a population density of 50.5 persons per square mile. The world's most densely populated country is the Netherlands, with 893 inhabitants per square mile, followed by Belgium with 769. The least densely populated countries are Lybia with 2, Australia with 3, and Canada with 4 persons per square mile.

Pittman Scouts Win Three Waukegan Contest Games

The Antioch Scouts, sponsored by Pittman Motors, recently participated in the Waukegan Recreation Holiday Tournament which was held at Downey Hospital.

The team won all three games played. Don Fyles racked up 19 points and Bob Martin 13 in the first game against Tony's Liquors, winning the contest 65 to 57.

The second game was played against the McKenny All Stars. Jack Pregonzer top-notched the Scouts with 26 points and Mike Haviland whizzed in 16 to bring the score to a slim 73 to 72 victory.

The final game was played against top-scoring Posner's Clothiers. The Scouts pummeled Posner's with a 97 to 80 score. Pregonzer again shot in 28 big points. Floyd added another 22.

This competition ranked the Antioch Scouts on a top rung of the Land O' Lakes League and is the first time that an Antioch squad won all three contests.

ATH wrestling heavyweight Bill Slater positions his man for a pin in the recent Sequoit match with Elmhurst, Tuesday night, December 19. Antioch lost the match by a large margin.
